COLLEGE INFORMATION

- ◆ The Indiana Max program at Holy Cross College provides tuition and fees at $0 out of pocket for Indiana residents who qualify for the maximum in need-based aid. Many other scholarships and grants apply to such eligible students. In addition to the financial aid provision of Indiana Max, students will receive support and mentoring focused on college success.
- ◆ For those interested in a pathway to the University of Notre Dame, whether in a STEM field for a bachelor's degree or the business field for a master's degree: consider adding Holy Cross College to your Common Application and be considered for one of the pathway programs to Notre Dame.

For more information on either of these programs, please go to: <https://www.hcc-nd.edu/enrollment-programs/>

"Every accredited college or university offers education, but not every school prepares students for the real world in the way that Calvin does. Best of all, perhaps, Calvin provides a fantastic Christian education for little money, compared to other private schools."

- The Princeton Review

The Parents' Corner!

Colleges often offer Parent PLUS loans to help pay for schooling. Do your research before accepting these as they have different terms than other federal loans. For example, they can not be transferred to the student upon graduation and interest rates are fixed.
